“Love Poems: Are You The One?” digs deep into the heart of love. These poems and insights are written in a way that most people will relate to. There are many questions that people ask about love. Here are some of those questions. When am I going to find “The One”? Is the person that I’m with “The One”? Are we going to work out? How does this person feel about me? What does this person think about me? This book addresses many love situations. It will answer some of the questions that people want answered. Most people have gone through some type of experience involving love. Some people get lucky and find the right person for them and they spend the rest of their lives with that person. Other people are not so lucky and they go through different experiences from falling in love to heartbreak. And after the heartbreak, the famous questions arise, “Will We Reconnect?” or “Should I Just Move on?”. “Love Poems: Are You The One?” addresses those different experiences and cycles that people go through. This book is divided into five chapters; Dreaming of Love, Falling in Love, The Relationship, Heartbreak and Reconnect or Move on. Each chapter has a word of insight about the topic at the beginning of the chapter. Following the insight will be a collection of poems about the topic of the chapter. You will find the poems very enjoyable but insightful at the same time. Enjoy the experience and begin your journey through “Love Poems: Are You The One?”.

Dr. Woods' commentary supports his conviction that the letter to the Hebrews was written to Jews saved under the old covenant by faith in a coming Messiah. He skillfully demonstrates that the book was written to convince these Old Testament saints to put their faith in Jesus, the Messiah who had come. Using this approach, Dr. Woods clarifies the difficult passages of Hebrews without corrupting the text or manipulating it to conform to one's theological bent. In particular, the passages that are sometimes used to support the possibility of losing one's salvation are carefully examined and their meanings precisely clarified. This book presents new and biblically accurate insights into the overall argument of the letter to the Hebrews that need to be understood by the evangelical community. - Publisher.

The beginning of this book starts with John the Baptist asking a Question in Matthew 11:3-5, "...art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?" When John the Baptist asked this question he was in prison hearing news about Jesus and his fame throughout the region. From then until now people all over the world are looking for and expecting great light from church leadership, just like the people described in Capernaum. Scripture notes that these people of Zabulon and Naphthalim were sitting in darkness when they saw a great light. Great leaders always stand out and are easily identified. This book details seven qualifying criteria for leadership and the central thought is based on John's question. It is important that people know their leaders are sanctioned by God. Our Lord Jesus has set the example, therefore we ask... "Are you the one or should we look for another?"

This book shows that Jesus saw himself as the messiah anticipated in the Jewish scriptures and believed that the restoration of Israel hinged on the outcome of his ministry.

client—armed with nothing but a backpack, a change of clothes, and a journal—works with Blackson until he discovers what he hasn't yet found. Whether it's about forgiveness, confronting inner demons, letting go of self-hatred or the scars of the past, those hard-earned, sweat-proof lessons Blackson instills in his clients are right here, in this book, You Are The One. No need to pack your bags or renew your passport. So what are you waiting for? For someone to save you? If so, you're not alone. But it's not going to happen. Your parents won't rescue you. Your friends won't carry you. No one's coming. Know why? Everything you are seeking is within you already. Because you're already here. You. Are. The. ONE. You Are The One is a reflection of Blackson's unique and distinctive thoughts, teachings, stories, and poetic inspirations to help you access your true power and live boldly and fully in the world—with no regrets.

Did Jesus claim to be the long-awaited "messiah"? Going against much contemporary scholarship, Australian scholar Michael Bird argues that he did. He begins by exploring the messianic expectations in the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish literature. Next, Bird points out weaknesses in current arguments that "Messiah," or "Christ," was a title given to Jesus by the early church but not used by Jesus himself. Bird then examines the Gospels and related literature, finding in Jesus's words and actions evidence that he saw himself as the messiah described in the Scriptures of Israel and believed that Israel's restoration hinged on the outcome of his ministry.
