Teachers and parents of ESL students will cheer when they discover the ¡Hola, English! series, as will those seeking to expose English-speaking kids to Spanish. In this book, "stop" and "go" are illustrated in different situations. In addition, the meanings of "red" and "green" are extended into the wider world.

One day Little Green rolls into town and says his first word: "Go!" The town is building a bridge, and now everyone has a job to do, from dump truck to forklift. Little Green helps them do their jobs with gusto. Until . . . there is a little too much gusto. They can go, go, go . . . but how will they stop? This bright, fun book with a bold package captures the endless energy of little boys and the timeless appeal of trucks and machines—both for building and knocking down. Plus, it has an underlying message about working together to get things done.

Tabs, wheels and flaps introduce colors with the help of running, roller skating, swimming, and car driving dogs. On board pages.

Little Bunny causes chaos on the road as she hoppity-hops to school with her brothers and sisters. Then, along comes kind Officer Beals to sort things out and keep everyone safe. The charming "jay-hopping" bunny learns an important lesson about road safety. This delightful rhyming story helps kids understand the importance of looking both ways, crossing at a crosswalk, and always following the rules of the road.
